The Evening Herald Want Ads Three Lines : Three Times : Three Dimes

WALL STREET AGAIN LAPSSES INTO LETHARGY (By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) New York, April 1.—The stock market today lacked the vitality which characterized the preceding session. Initial gains were soon converted into equally slight losses and the main tendency of the morning was downward. The impulse lent by indications of an early decision in the freight rates cases seemed to have spent its force and with no new influence to take its place speculative interest waned. Reports of advances in steel prices were without effect and United States Steel sagged with the rest of the list. Teachers sold short more freely than at any other time this week but were not able to shake out holdings of long stock and there were appearances of underlying strength despite the morning's recession. Bonds were steady. Purchases by recent sellers forced the market upward again in the afternoon. Missouri Pacific rose beyond 27. Rock Island collaterals dropped 1 1/2 to 3 1/2, a new low level. New York state and municipal issues were active and heavy. Decrease of $2,424,000 in New York Central's February net earnings depressed the stock a point and stopped the advance momentum. The market closed firm. Increased demand for the copper stocks stiffened the general list which reached its best figures for some of the colors and western shares. Closing prices on the most important stocks were: Amalgamated, 77 1/2-8. Sugar, 109 3/4. Atchafalpa, 57. Reading, 166. Southern Pacific, 94 7/8. Union Pacific, 169. Wheel, 63 1/2-5. Steel preferred, 110 1/4.

Money Market New York, April 1.—Call money steady, 1 1/4-1 1/2 per cent. Time loans steady, 4 1/2 per cent, 2 1/4 per cent, 30 days, 2 3/4 per cent, 6 months, 3 1/4 per cent. Mercantile paper, 2 1/2 per cent. Bar silver, 53 1/2. Mexican dollars, 45 1/2.

Cotton Market New York, April 1.—Cotton spot quiet, middling, 13 1/2; gulf, 13 1/2.

The Metal Markets. New York, April 1.—Copper firm; standard spot and June, 113 1/2-1/4; 114 3/4. Tin easy; spot, 27.50-27.87 1/2; June, 27.80-28.10. In ready, unchanged. London markets closed as follows: Copper steady; spot, 65 1/2-66; futures, 66. Tin easy; spot, 112 1/2-64; futures, 114 7/8-64. Iron—Cleveland warrants, 51s 6d.

Chicago Grain Chicago, April 1.—Although unexpectedly steady cables from Liverpool and some strength into wheat today, the effect was not lasting. Opening prices were unchanged to 1/2 cent higher and then came a decided setback. The close was firm at 1/2 to 1/4 cent advance. Corn gave way with wheat after a moderate bulge due to covering by shorts. The market, which opened a shade off to 1/2 cent up, made a moderate gain and later broke sharply. The close was firm, 1/2 to 1/4 cent above last night. In the oats trade prices followed corn and business reached a fair volume. Closing prices: Wheat—May, 91 1/2; July, 87c. Corn—May, 87 1/2; July, 85 1/2. Oats—May, 33 1/2; July, 32 1/2. Lard—May, 119 1/2; July, 116 1/2. Ribs—May, 111 1/2; July, 111 1/2.

Lead and Spelter St. Louis, April 1.—Lead nominal, 19.45-19.50; spelter quiet, 45.12 1/2-45 1/2. New York, April 1.—Lead quiet, 19.75-19.85; London, 41s. Spelter quiet, 45.25-45.50; London, 42 1/2-43.

OPERATIONS IN LIVE STOCK MARKETS Chicago Livestock. Chicago, April 1.—Hogs—Receipts 20,000; market steady; bulk, 18.50-18.65; light, 18.50-18.70; mixed, 18.25-18.45; heavy, 18.25-18.45; rough, 18.25-18.50; pigs, 17.25-18.50.

Adjutant General Herring to Come Here Tomorrow Night to Take Spanish-American Organization Into Service of State. The Spanish-American national guard company will be formally mustered today in the service of the state tonight at the army adjutant general Harry T. Herring will accept the company in the name of the governor and the patriotic young men will be commissioned as citizen soldiers of the commonwealth. Ray Sena, who organized the company under authority from the adjutant general's office, received word today from General Herring that he would be here tomorrow night. Final plans for mustering the company in were in abeyance, pending word from the general. Tonight at the army the company is to hold a meeting at which preparations will be made for the muster. There are sixty-eight recruits in the ranks, and Mr. Sena wants to see them all at the meeting tonight. Any other young men who wish to join the company will be welcomed at the meeting. General Herring is to arrive from Santa Fe tomorrow evening on train No. 1, which is due here at 7 o'clock. He will be met at the station by a committee from the company, headed by Mr. Sena.

COMBINED OUTPUT OF FIVE NEXT PLANTS ONLY EQUAL TO "FORD" Detroit, Mich., April 1.—"It takes the combined output of the five next largest motor car manufacturers in this country to equal Ford sales," P. L. D. Perry, managing director of the Ford Motor Company of Manchester, England, writes in an interesting article on the growth of Ford business in England, in the April issue of "The Times," monthly magazine published by the Ford Motor Company. Mr. Perry tells of the organization of the Manchester company in October, 1909. He talks of the prejudice against American automobiles which formerly existed, saying that the American built Ford was regarded as a dealer, drove a Ford as the American built bicycle, impracticable for English users. He describes the many contests and races in which the Ford proved its merit to the British public and names on the turning point of public opinion the year 1911 when Henry Alexander, a dealer, drove a Ford to the top of Ben Nevis, a 4,800 feet—the highest point in the British Isles. "The ascent and the hardly less arduous descent made a race which was eagerly followed by all newspapers throughout the islands," says Mr. Perry. "At Fort William the town made holiday. Highland officers made a triumphal reception for the car in the city streets. People who had looked at the car as a means to give it serious consideration. The result was that in this year more than fourteen hundred cars were sold in the British Isles. Many persons do not know that the Ford is the original taxi in England. As in St. Petersburg, Russia, New York City and other big cities of the world, the Ford was the first public taxicab in London. Mr. Perry says: "It was in 1905. The only means of cab conveyance was the horse-drawn hansom. The advent of the automobile suggested the possibility of a change. Many experiments were made with various forms of more or less weird vehicles, but it was left to the Ford to place on the streets of London that form of conveyance which has since come into general use. The chauffeurs of these original taxis had to be recruited from the ranks of cabmen, bred for generations upon the knowledge of London, and it is worthy of special note that the simplicity of the Ford control, then as now, was such that these cabmen could and did pick up the art of driving with almost no difficulty. "In closing, Mr. Perry says: "With the opening of the Manchester factory, which took place in 1911, we produced and sold the first year more than three thousand cars, while last year more than six thousand cars came through and were purchased in the United Kingdom alone. The car is established. All the portents for the future are optimistic. "The factory in Manchester is the smallest in volume of output of any of the three Ford factories, the parent plant at Highland Park, Mich., being largest and the factory at Ford, Ont., from which the British maritime possessions are supplied with Fords, being second.
